{quote} I was going to say I want to hear from Pres78, KinsaleForex and SimpleDev, but only after at least 3 other responses. But I was afraid I would never get to you guys if I did that. 🙏

Liam was kind enough to let me know that there was some posting going on! 🙏 My best wishes for him this year.

HiddenGap its good to see your posts again friend.

I see your 15m and raise you a 4h.

It would seem that is if April 15-17th contained selling to move price down for the past few days. As for an entry, I will have to pass on the shorts. My thinking is that with the massive volume on April 3rd and 4th in the background I would not want to be caught short once the buying resumes.

Ok going back into posting retirement.
