

An emerging new consciousness for humanity?

Participatory Conference (1)

The night is darkest, just before dawn: never, ever, give up.

Game over: a dream becomes reality

The hippy teenage culture of "Peace & Love" and "Flower-Power to the People" of the '60, has reached maturity (2). More than 50 years after the violent May '68 revolution in France, we are in an underground peaceful, silent, planetary uprising, which is in full momentum, despite the worst appearances of the contrary (3).

Thanks to the Internet - which transfers the power of the ultra-rich elite to normal people, there where it belongs - for the first time in the history of the human race, at the speed of a forest fire, dozens of millions of ordinary people of all backgrounds, cultures, languages, nationalities, race, age, origin, or social class, ethnicity, gender, all sexual, political or religious orientations combined, are standing up to reclaim their dignity, to link together and to generate a New Earth (4)

"Grass roots" movements practice non-violent sustained and massive civil disobedience: "Flashmob-Flashtalk". E.g.: Colombia: 1998 Children for Peace - Spain: May 2011 Los Indignados: Podemos - USA: Sept 2011 Occupy Wall street - France: Febr 2017 Standing Nights - 17 Nov 2018 Saturdays Yellow Vests/Jackets manifestations etc. etc. (5).

They want to regain their sovereignty and withdraw in a respectful and invisible way, like the sea before a tsunami, from the insatiable, predatory and ruthless neo-liberal corporate capitalist machinery - a starving monster - that crushes life on earth. A deceptive power game surviving through lies that traps 99% of mankind. Slaves living under Orwellian norms and controls.

A decadent system of "bread and games", "Kleenex-sex: ass and coca", which made a "coup d'etat", a direct attack on the very integrity of the human soul and must be rebooted urgently.

Does it exist to put us more and more to sleep in a sort of dream state? To keep us hypnotized individualized somnambulists, servile and obedient as "Sheep-eons" (Sheep and Pigeons): imprisoned "smart-screens addicted"? Connected like robots 24/7 to a digital virtual reality of algorithms, to artificial intelligence and facial recognition technology?

Or to shape us up and remind us of our ignorance to have forgotten the unpronounceable splendour that we are in our true essential sacred, awakened, simple and normal human nature?

Can we reconnect with this living reality and by very tiny steps manifest the highest intention and possibilities of the mission and vision of our soul in the world?

In the end, to get out of the horror of the nightmarish outer reality - which functions as a giant mirroring system reflecting the insanity of the "haunted house" of the collective and individual unconscious - in an exponential way more and more people are questioning themselves. They do soul work to the root of their inner shadows / demons and address those of others with deep compassionate understanding. They get up from their knees and come together to reinvent a life that works for all of us, a form of "enlightened social penny & regional capitalism". They innovate without asking for permission: sharing their culture, knowledge, wisdom and resources. They aspire to emerge from the omnipresent lie in the matrix of the collective subconscious, from the "deep dark state" in themselves: the living Truth makes us free. Very slowly we move from the age of Pisces - the era of fear and terror of the Alien and the Beast 666: the illusion of a "flat earth" - towards the Age of Aquarius 999 of an awakened and benevolent civilization: the experiencing of a "round earth".

It's a paradigm shift in consciousness. One person, one breath, one heartbeat, one soul whisper in one eternal moment at a time.

The time is now: it is 11.55pm for all of us? (6)

And when will the tidal wave of the new, fresh and crisp consciousness break over humanity? Before 2025? In one, two or three generations? Never? We can only speculate. Nobody knows. And ...: Imagine ALL the People ... (7)

Which one generation later, contributed to transform, little by little, the unshakable beliefs of "divide and conquer", fear of oneself and the other, lack, competition, the compulsion of the "fundamentalist religious" unquestionable "Viagra economy" of never-ending more growth-consumption-profit circle, into the truth that "small is beautiful" and that we are, in essence, each of us unique beings of light with an unlimited potential: the Alpha & Omega.

Every human being is in essence a Holy Grail: united and connected to the same "Living Source of the Great Being":

Global warming (CO2 emissions) contributes to only 5% of the climate change. The main cause is 24% intensive agriculture and 12.6% pesticides.

The public attention is purposely diverted by the agribusiness and big pharma industrial lobbies towards a false problem, to blame the people to be the root cause, in order to continue their deadly businesses..

As a metaphor, we collectively pass under the pounding waves through the ruthless seas of Strait of Magellan at Cape Horn. Forty percent of the human population is already affected by water scarcity. Humans have annihilated more than 60 percent of all animal life on earth since 1970. All hands on deck: we either live together or die together.

Today, as never before in history, mankind is faced with the possibility of transforming itself.

We can now provoke over time, the inevitable collapse of the fundamentalist Zionist controlled USA-Israeli Empire's New World order. The collective terror of the global heating/climate change - which is not only man-made - is manipulated to justify to set up a corporate controlled one world government and to destroy the principle of the "individual nation-state".

After breaking the outer chains with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights: slavery, equality between men and women, people of different race and colour ("Black Power"), the dogmas of organized fundamentalist religions, sexuality in all its variations L.G.B.T. there still remains one major taboo to be lifted, a chain to break: the release from the chains of the grip of the obsessive/compulsive mind (the identification with our inner prison walls) with which each of us remain locked up in various degrees, as in a hologram.

- (6) Is the crisis a wake-up call to reclaim our individual and collectively abandoned responsibility, delegated to others to whom we have given away our own unlimited power? Humans value over profit: the neo-liberal economic system is incompatible with the ecology and the expansion of consciousness. The sovereign power of every man, woman and country must be spread throughout the world by the First Amendment of the US Constitution "We, the People" for Truth, Dignity and Sustainability. A planetary underground resistance where very ordinary people, by freely inter-cross cultural associating, make heroic efforts not only to survive, but to simply live in peace. They are now giving birth to a world based on the rule of true democracy, guaranteeing life, equality, fraternity and individual spiritual consciousness for all. ...
- (7) The Earth can perfectly survive without the human race, which is still her deadly cancer. We have indeed a unique "once in the creation opportunity since the Big Bang" to awaken to "our individual and collective splendors" and to enter into a new glorious era through "self-remembering, self-realization and a collective awakening". And, at 11.55 pm, with a portal open till around 2045, there is enough momentum to wake up in time. Also, infinitesimally small as this potential still may be in real or in our imagination - is it worthwhile to give it a try? Are we ready? The timing is impeccable. Will we heal ourselves and like caterpillars, become the gorgeous butterflies and spread our wings to dive into this dazzling and awesome unknown? A bold assumption? Perhaps. But after all these million years of evolution, to have struggled so hard and come from so far and so close to this (omega)point in time, it would be a tragic shame to have missed what could have been "our crowning Glory".

Also, to be part of the solution, turn your back on the traditional mainstream media owned and controlled by the power elite. Turn off and throw your TV out of the window. Consult the internet alternative social media for "fresh, reliable and alive" information that goes deep into events and solutions.

Facilitator / Speaker Harry: BA in econ. (Rotterdam / NL), MBA Insead (Fontainebleau, FR), is since his youth curious and in search of his forgotten and lost humanity. In the early 1970s, he pursued this "quest for truth and inner wisdom" in a less and less unconscious way". Since 2002, he studies with Faisal Muqaddam - www.diamondlogos.com who teaches the essential enneagram, the mapping of the layers of the ego, the diamond guidance and the inner space.

Harry organizes lectures (a new emerging consciousness of humanity?), workshops, full moon meditations and individual corpo- spiritual inquiry sessions: manifest very slowly, the highest intention of the soul into the material world of form. : Wake up, get up and walk the path of your whispering soul.
